

THE PIRATE OF PATEA

Kia ora, my friend: I've started a story for you & your loved one to finish off. To help you along the way here are a few suggestions:

- You write a sentence or two & then post it to your loved one, who'll write something & then send it back to you. Do this until the story is completed & all the drawings (illustrations) are done!
- It may take a while to complete, but as long as you're both having fun, then that it's all good!

The Pirate of Patea

There was an awesome boy called Devon who lived with his Nanna & Koru in Rutland Street in Patea. Devon was an incredibly special boy because he was also a night-time Pirate.

At night when Devon was fast asleep in his pirate pajamas, he would be woken by his friend the Whale who lived across the road. The whale would use the very tip of his tail to softly tap on Devon's window to wake him up. One night ...

THE PIRATE OF PATEA

...And Devon made a plan to rescue the lambs that were being transported in the stock trucks that were always rumbling through Patea. He whispered his plan into the whale's ear, let's go down to the ...

All the whanau paddling on the Aotea waka vigorously nodded their heads to agree that, Yes!

Lambs were treasure and that they would help rescue them to! And so they...

CAN YOU DRAW .... THE WHALE SOFTLY TAPPING ON DEVON'S WINDOW?

THE PIRATE OF PATEA

At last!...Devon stood on the top of the enormous whale's head and reached into the...

WHO CAN DRAW THE FUNNIEST PICTURE OF DEVON AND THE WHALE RESCUING THE LAMBS?

--	--

You can't poo here said Devon to his friend the whale, who just ...

THE PIRATE OF PATEA

The loudly baaing treasure was paddled away to safety on the Aotea... to live a ...

At breakfast next morning Devon's Nan and Koru were curious to know why there was sheep poo all over his favorite pirate pajama's...Devon smiled and said ...

The End.

THIS AMAZING STORY WAS WRITTEN & ILLUSTRATED BY THESE TWO AWESOME PEOPLE:

NAME:

NAME: