

Hi _____

Freestyle Area - Let your child know how much you are looking forward to seeing them when they come for a visit.

My First Visiting Day

Today is visiting day at my mum and dad's prison!

I've been looking forward to visiting day for ages and I'm so excited that I can't stop hop, hop, hopping!

If I stand on one leg and wobble, wobble, wobble this is what I can see!

A friendly dog at the gate waiting to welcome me!

He licks and sniffs all over my clothes. I can smell his doggy breath and feel his wet doggy nose! Poke, poke, poke!

If I crunch up my eyes and squint, squint, squint then this is what I will see!

Big fences and gates almost as big as the sky. I didn't know that prisons are like castles! What a fantastic place for my mum and dad to stay. Not even a ferocious giant, a monster from space, a dinosaur or a tiger could get inside and hurt my mum or dad!

If I make a spy glass with my hands and look, look, look, this is what I can see.

Lines of other visitors are getting searched! Machines are buzzing and pinging, and a prison officer is waiving a special wand all around with big swoosh, swoosh, swooshes! Perhaps they're looking for lollies and sweets? They must be super hungry!

If I trip trot and hop along in a tidy-line then this is what I will see!

Through some doors, along a corridor and then into a big bright room where we'll all talk! I pretend to be a sheep and happily trot, trot, trot along. I quietly baa to myself as I trip trot along (but I don't poop like a sheep!).

If my hearts beating like a drum and butterfly's are flapping in my tum...This is because of what's coming up next!

Finally, waiting for me with big smiles and arms open wide is my mum and dad!

They look as sparkly as a big bottle of fanta in their cool orange jumpsuits.

I'm so happy that I fly, fly, fly right into their arms!

Waddle, waddle, waddle, I'm a duck quackity quacking & this is what I will hear. Its chat-a-chat-a-chat time!

Adults like to yack, yack, yack and to me it sounds just like quack, quack, quack, much louder than ducks at a pond!

It just like Christmas in here with lots of tinkly Reindeer! I can hear the prison officers walking around making happy jingle noises with their shiny keys and silver chains!

Some officers will walk fast;
tinkle, tinkle, tinkle!

Some officers will amble and sway; chinkle, chinkle, hop
chinkle-choo

And... some officers will trot!
Tinky, tinky, clinky, tinky

Tick, tick, tock I'm the hands on a clock and this is what happens next!

Its ...see ya later alligator time!

Adults can act strange when it's time to say good-bye and often they like to cry!

If this happens just join in and see who makes the most tear water!

But you mustn't worry!
Just give them a big hug and be brave...

...because you'll come and visit
mum and dad again and again and again and again and ...!

I'm back at home now and I'm feeling - Flat, flat, poop and a scoop!

I miss my mum and I miss my dad and this makes me feel sad. But I know they won't want me to plop around feeling all doomy and gloomy! Instead I'll give thanks because my mum and dad are the best mum and dad in the whole wide-world to me & I'm blessed that we are a loving and special family!

Hey Mum or Dad: Can you write or draw something special for your child in this space:
